

THE DAILY HERALD.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1903.

MARK TWAIN'S charges against Christian Science do not appear to strike Mother Eddy as the work of a humorist.

SINCE science assures us that there is a deadly microbe which infests paper money, the long green will probably become unpopular. Any friends who are afraid to handle it may relieve themselves of the danger by leaving it with THE HERALD editor, as he is immune to that sort of infection.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is still studying the manly art of self defense, and has now engaged an Italian master-of-arms to train him in fencing as well as in the use of sabre and poniard. He should also secure some South Sea bushman to teach him the use of the boomerang, as that is a dangerous implement when improperly wielded.

THE Liquor Dealers' Association is on the right track in its recent move against disorderly and law-breaking saloons. Even people who are opposed to prohibition do not uphold saloon keepers in the open contempt for the law which so many of them display. The open violation of the law by many saloons does much to swell the ranks of the prohibitionists. A man who openly defies the law is a bad citizen, and all good citizens must condemn him. If such a class of law-breakers is upheld and protected, a long step is taken towards bringing all law into disrepute. There is every reason why the saloon keepers should be forced to observe the law, as well as any other class of people. There are, of course, many saloon keepers all over the country, who would be perfectly willing to obey the law, but feel that they cannot compete with those who do not. Thus one criminal produces another. If the law will uphold the honest, law-abiding ones in the business, by enforcing obedience on the part of all, much will be done to eliminate the evil features.

NEARLY a million dollars has been added to the state's revenue by the new poll tax. It is surprising to see that so many citizens had heretofore neglected to fulfill their obligation to the state by the payment of this small tax, who presumably have been able to pay it.—BROWNVILLE HERALD.

AS THE HERALD was one of the few paper which opposed this measure, it is pleasant to note that it sees its error and commends it, though it leaves its county with less than 300 enfranchised citizens out of an enrollment of over three thousand.—Beeville Bee.

The Bee is mistaken. THE HERALD does not see any error in its stand on the question. This paper never opposed the poll tax, which is a good thing, and which all citizens should take pride in paying, but it does not believe that a citizen who is otherwise qualified should be disfranchised for debt to the state. There should be some other means devised to enforce the collection of the poll tax. Many good men, who are honest and hard-working and of average intelligence, have been disfranchised by this law. These are generally men whose vote could not be bought, while scheming politicians now have a better chance to carry elections, by buying poll tax receipts for the voters who can be bought.

HOW CARNEGIE GREETED THE KING.

The visit which King Edward paid Andrew Carnegie at Skibo Castle was a complete surprise to the philanthropist, the King merely telegraphing him a few hours beforehand that he would arrive at a certain time. Mr. Carnegie happened to be asleep when the "wire" came, says a correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, and it was not handed to him until he awoke. The correspondent relates the incident that followed:

Then there was considerable excitement. The King was due in five minutes, and Mr. Carnegie was in despair at the thought that not a single arrangement for his reception had been made. Then he had an inspiration. At Skibo there is an immense pipe organ which Mr. Carnegie had put in some time ago for his own pleasure. An organist is a permanent member of the millionaire's household. Mr. Carnegie determined that the organ should thunder out "God Save the King" as his Majesty entered the castle. But when he sent for the organist, the reply came back that the musician had gone down to the neighboring swimming-pool.

"Have him out of the water, then!" roared Mr. Carnegie.

And so they had him out. Actually dripping and clad only in a blanket, the wretched man was brought back to the castle on the run, borne into the concert-room and plumped down on the organ stool. It was just time, for the word passed that the King's carriage was coming up the driveway. An immense screen had been dragged in front of the organist, now innocent even of his blanket, so that he was shielded from view, and thus, the water dripping from his hair, his fingers and his shoulder blades, the shivering musician played "God Save the King," while one servant rubbed him with a coarse towel and another gave him brandy. The King was delighted with his musical reception, and when Mr. Carnegie told him the circumstances under which the national anthem had been performed his Majesty laughed till his sides ached.

$100 REWARD, $500.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 29, 1902. The transfer involved, in coin and stock $112,500, and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's disease.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1901. They interviewed scores of the secured and tried it out on its merits by putting over the three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address John J. Fulton Company, 420 Montgomery St. San Francisco, Cal.
